Take advantage of unique opportunities throughout the year to explore, listen and engage ...

Join a friendly Environmental Docent on one of the dates listed below, and appreciate all that this 750-acre wildlife & recreation area has to enjoy!

1/27: Kick off the 2013 with a walk that'll get your blood pumping, and allow you to connect with others and enjoy the outdoor surroundings of Shoreline at Mountain View!

2/24: Yet another opportunity to burn a few calories while having fun and getting outdoors! Meet new friends and enjoy the fresh air on your cheeks.

3/24: Join Santa Clara Valley Audubon Society for an opportunity to observe and identify neo-tropical birds on their migratory route along the Pacific Flyway! This weekend's event will depart from the San Antonio Road gate (near Charleston Slough).

Unless otherwise specified, these free walks, talks and special events depart the Rengstorff House on Sundays at 9:00 a.m. Only heavy rain cancels. Wear/bring: layered clothing, walking shoes and binoculars, if you have them.
